

1.3 million dead Iraqis Tens of thousands of dead
Afghans
4,900 dead US soldiers
$3 Trillion wasted
Budget cuts,
foreclosures, tuition hikes...

The current economic crisis—including budget cuts and tuition hikes—is largely the result of our government’s massive military budget and ongoing wars overseas. On the sixth anniversary of the US invasion of Iraq, join Stony Brook students, faculty, and staff to oppose continued war in Iraq and the escalation of the US war in Afghanistan, and to urge both the federal government and our campus administration to invest in responsible alternatives to war and militarism.

Wednesday,
MAR. 18TH
12:50pm

Meet by the Fountain at the center of campus

Sponsored by the Social Justice Alliance and the Stony Brook chapter of United University Professions (AFT 2190)